

Central Bank Business Surveys and Liaison Programs

Draft Conference program

DAY 1: MONDAY AUGUST 20, 2018*

8.15–8.45 Coffee and registration

8.45–9.00 Opening remarks

Probabilistic expectations of firms: Results from a new, national panel of business executives | Brent H. Meyer, Federal Reserve Atlanta

Tracking the views of British businesses: evidence from the Decision Maker Panel | Pawel Smietanka, Bank of England

Break

Face-to-Face versus Web Surveys: preliminary lessons from the Business Outlook Survey in Canada | Farrukh Suvankulov, Bank of Canada

Business survey at the National Bank of Ukraine: the latest innovations | Olha Vozniuk, National Bank of Ukraine

The Atlanta Fed's Project Workflow Model | Karen Gilmore and Chris Oakley, Federal Reserve Atlanta

13.00–14.00 Lunch

Diffusion Indices, Sentiment Matrices, and the Richmond Bank's Program of Data Collection | Sonya Ravindranath Waddell, Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond

Retail survey: Indonesian case | Ridwan Zia Kusumah, Bank of Indonesia

Break

Business intelligence methodology and development at the Bank of Thailand | Kingkan Ketsiri, Bank of Thailand

Survey information and short-term inflation forecasts | Geert Langenus, Bank of Belgium

10 years of the Riksbank Business Survey – Lessons and way forward | Jyry Hokkanen/Markus Tibblin, Sveriges Riksbank

*Sveriges Riksbank (Riksbankssalen), Brunkbergstorg 11, 103 37 Stockholm, Sweden

Central Bank Business Surveys and Liaison Programs

DAY 2: TUESDAY AUGUST 21, 2018

8.30–9.00 Coffee and registration

What Are People Thinking? The Role of Interview-Based Qualitative Research in the Central Banker's Toolkit | Christopher D'Souza, Bank of Canada

Understanding Digitalisation and Pricing Behaviour | Kimberly Doherty and Erik Frohm, Sveriges Riksbank

Understanding Digitalisation and Globalisation | Merylin Coombs, Bank of Australia

Break

Global Business Sentiment Survey Initiative | Laura Bartiloro Banca d'Italia and James Fudurich Bank of Canada

The Economic Impact of ICT | Harald Edquist, Master Researcher Macroeconomics Ericsson

13.00–14.00 Lunch

Titel TBC | Isaiah Hull, Sveriges Riksbank

Estimate tourist accommodation bookings on digital platforms | Robin Francois, Banque de France

Break

Challenges of digitalization and globalization in developing countries/Understanding Digitalisation and Globalisation | Brenda Mwanza, Bank of Zambia

The Analysis of Open Text Responses in Web Survey | Nicholas Parker, Federal Reserve Bank Atlanta

